Preapplication Coordination: The standard application forms required by OMB Circular No. A-102 as revised to meet the needs of this program and approved by OMB, must be used for this program. Administrative requirements will be determined in accordance with OMB Circular No. A-102. An environmental impact assessment is required for this program. There are no other requirements for coordination with governmental or nongovernmental units prior to the formal submission to DOE. No preapplication form is required by DOE. EXAMPLES OF FUNDED PROJECTS: A group of private citizens in Arizona has devised an integrated, renewable-energy farm system, which includes a solar box oven, a greenhouse, and a food dryer; eventually, it will also include refrigeration. Calienta, Nevada, a remote low-income community, devised a geothermal system which has resulted in a significant energy savings for the community. A couple in Sioux City, Iowa demonstrated how any existing home can incorporate heating and cooling. This project resulted in the development of a small business building solar collectors for commerical use. The Paiute Indian tribe in Nevada has installed a solar energy system for a fish hatchery, where the fish must be raised in such an even temperature that both heating and cooling are necessary. In Hawaii, an individual built a water wheel that generates electricity for a small community of farmers who are otherwise without lights and power. A Guamanian built a lighted navigation buoy system powered by wind generators. The buoys, which help guide fishing and recreational boats, enable fishermen to work into the evening.

(EHV Loan Guaranty Program)

FEDERAL AGENCY: OFFICE OF CONSERVATION AND RENEWABLE ENERGY, DEPARTMENT OF ENERGY

AUTHORIZATION: Electric and Hybrid Vehicle Research, Development, and Demonstration Act of 1976, Section 10, Public Law 94-413, 15 U.S.C. 2501; as amended by the Department of Energy Act of 1978 - Civilian Applications, Public Law 95-238; Energy Reorganization Act of 1974, Public Law 93-438; and Department of Energy Organization Act, Public Law 95-91; Executive Order 12009, 42 FR 46267.

OBJECTIVES: To assist in the introduction of electric and hybrid vehicles into the Nation's transportation fleet; to assure that qualified small business concerns and other qualified borrowers are not excluded due to lack of adequate capital; and to encourage the commercial production of electric and hybrid vehicles.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE: Guaranteed/Insured Loans.

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS: Loan guaranties are available for the purposes of: 1) construction or purchase of capital equipment related to research, development, and production of electric or hybrid vehicles or components thereof; 2) initial operating expenses associated with the development and production of electric or hybrid vehicles or components thereof; or 3) research and development related to electric or hybrid vehicle technology. Priorities to meet program objectives have been established: first priority - commercial production of electric or hybrid vehicles and/or components; second priority - prototype development; and third priority - research and development projects which must first be evaluated on the basis of unsolicited proposals. The loan bears interest on the outstanding principal at a rate not to exceed an annual percentage as determined by the Secretary to be reasonable, taking into account the range of interest rates prevailing in the private sector for similar government obligations of comparable risk. The terms of such loans require full repayment over a period not to exceed 15 years, or 75 percent of the expected average useful economic life of the major physical assets, or other collateral securing such loans, whichever is less. The amount of the guaranty on any loan shall not exceed $3,000,000. The total principal amount of guaranties for any combination of outstanding loans for separate projects, to any single borrower, may not exceed $6,000,000. The project is to be performed in the United States, its territories or possessions, or on property owned or leased by the United States, its territories or possessions.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

Applicant Eligibility: Any individual, partnership, corporation, small business, or other legal entity having authority to enter into a loan agreement which has presented satisfactory evidence of an interest in electric or hybrid vehicles or components thereof in an acceptable manner. A borrower seeking a guaranty must be a citizen or national of the United States.

Beneficiary Eligibility: Same as Applicant Eligibility.

Credentials/Documentation: A loan guaranty application must be submitted, the purpose of which is to provide sufficient evidence that: the project is technically and economically feasible; the prospective borrower will initiate and complete the project in a timely, efficient, and acceptable manner; there is reasonable assurance of the payment of principal and interest on the loan within the specified time, and the collateral pledged will be sufficient; the amount of the loan, when combined with funds available to the qualified borrower from other sources, will be sufficient to carry out the project for which the loan is made; and the project will contribute to the goals of the EHV Program. The borrower must show evidence of valid application to, and rejection from, at least two lenders or evidence of unreasonable terms proposed by the lenders.

APPLICATION AND AWARD PROCESS:

Preapplication Coordination: As an initial step, the prospective borrower may elect to submit a project summary which is simply an application brief. It is much less detailed than a formal application and therefore, minimizes the burden placed on the prospective borrower while at the same time expedites the reviewing process and simplifies the application procedure.

Application Procedure: Formal application for a loan guaranty is a cooperative effort between the prospective borrowers and lenders. Both the borrower and the lender should make sure that the application is legible and complete, with the component parts clearly referenced. It is the responsibility of the borrower to have a complete understanding of the requirements imposed by both the lender and DOE under the EHV Loan Guaranty Program. The borrower must prepare the application and submit six copies to the lender who should review the content and completeness of the package and hold discussions, as appropriate, with the borrower. The lender should then prepare a loan agreement and a written assessment of all aspects of the application and submit six copies of each with the application to the Chief, Test and Evaluation Branch, Office of Vehicle and Engine Research and Development, U.S. Department of Energy, Washington, DC 20585. An application procedures booklet is available from this office.

Award Procedure: The Assistant Secretary for Conservation and Renewable Energy, DOE, has the authority to approve EHV loan guaranty applications. Upon approval of an application, the Office of Procurement and Contracts Management is authorized to negotiate and execute a loan guaranty agreement between DOE, the borrower and the lender.

Deadlines: Loan guaranties may be made until September 1983.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time: The time required to process an EHV loan guaranty application is approximately six to eight months from the time the application is completed with all required documentation.

Appeals: Not applicable.

Renewals: None.

ASSISTANCE CONSIDERATIONS:

Formula and Matching Requirements: The total amount of Federal financial assistance, including the EHV loan guarantee, obtained by the borrower for the project shall not exceed 90 percent of the estimated aggregate net cost of the project to be undertaken by the borrower. A user charge of one percent per annum is imposed on the outstanding principal balance. The full amount is returned to the Treasury and is not available to offset the cost of administration.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance: The lender disburses the funds based on an approved disbursement schedule and on project progress. The maximum loan term is 15 years; the average loan term is 10 years.

POST ASSISTANCE REQUIREMENTS:

Reports: The lender and the borrower are required to provide information related to the project as is necessary to permit a determination of the technical progress, soundness of financial condition, management stability, compliance with the environmental protection requirements and other matters pertaining to the guaranty.

FEDERAL INSURANCE ADMINISTRATION

83.100 FLOOD INSURANCE

FEDERAL AGENCY: FEDERAL INSURANCE ADMINISTRATION, FEDERAL EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT AGENCY

AUTHORIZATION: Housing and Urban Development Act of 1968, Title XIII, Public Law 90-448, as amended, 82 Stat. 476 and 83 Stat 396, 42 U.S.C. 4001-4128; and Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973, Public Law 93-234, as amended, 87 Stat 975. NOTE: Effective April 1, 1979, as mandated by Executive Order 12127, the Federal Insurance Administration was transferred to the Federal Emergency Management Agency.

OBJECTIVES: To enable persons to purchase insurance against losses from physical damage to or loss of real or personal property caused by floods, mudflow, or flood caused erosion in the United States and to promote wise flood plain management practices in the Nation's flood-prone and mudflow-prone areas.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE: Insurance.

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS: Under the emergency phase of the NFIP, property owners may buy flood insurance at a chargeable premium rate that is generally lower than a normal actuarial rate, reflecting a subsidy by the Federal Government. Maximum amounts of such coverage available under the emergency phase of the Program are: $35,000 for a single-family home, $100,000 for all other residential structures, plus $10,000 per dwelling unit for any contents; for nonresidential structures, an aggregate liability for any single structure of $100,000 and for contents, $100,000 per occupant. Once a detailed flood insurance risk study has been completed the community enters the regular program and actuarial rates have been determined, additional coverage on existing properties may be purchased at these actuarial rates. The maximum coverage available under the regular Program is: $185,000 for single-family residential structures; $250,000 for all other residential structures; $60,000 for contents per dwelling unit; $250,000 for small business structures; $300,000 for contents of small businesses; $200,000 for other nonresidential structures and $200,000 for their contents. Properties built within identified special flood hazard areas after the effective date of the Flood Insurance Rate Map or after December 31, 1974, whichever is later, are eligible for flood insurance only at actuarial rates. Under the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973, effective March 2, 1974, flood insurance must be purchased as a condition of any form of Federal or federally-related financial assistance, including Federal grants, disaster assistance and mortgage loans from federally regulated lending institutions and FHA and VA insured or guaranteed mortgages for acquisition or construction purposes within identified special flood hazard areas where flood insurance is available. In a Regular Program Community the maximum insurance required as a condition of Federal or federally-related financial assistance for construction or acquisition purposes within the identified special flood hazard area need not exceed twice the emergency phase limits for the same structure. Communities having one or more identified special flood hazard areas must enter into the National Flood Insurance Program by July 1, 1975, or 1 year after the official identification of their special flood hazard areas, whichever is later, or be denied Federal or federally-related financial assistance for acquisition or construction purposes within those areas. Federally regulated conventional sources (i.e., banks, savings and loan associations, or similar lending institutions) are permitted to make loans secured by improved real estate or a mobile home located or to be located in the identified special flood hazard area of a nonparticipating community which has been formally identified as flood-prone for more than 1 year, but Federal disaster assistance for acquisition or construction purposes will not be available in the event of flood or flood-related property damage. Therefore, the conventional lender is statutorily required to notify the borrower, before making a loan in such an area, whether Federal disaster assistance will be available to the property.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

Applicant Eligibility: Flood insurance can be made available in any community (a State or political subdivision thereof with authority to adopt and enforce flood plain management measures for the areas within its jurisdiction) that submits a properly completed application to FEMA including copies of enacted flood plain management measures consistent with the National Flood Insurance Program regulations.

Beneficiary Eligibility: Residents and property owners in applicant community.

Credentials/Documentation: Same as Applicant Eligibility.

APPLICATION AND AWARD PROCESS:

Preapplication Coordination: Applications for community eligibility are subject to review by State and areawide clearinghouses pursuant to procedures in Part I, Attachment A of OMB Circular No. A-95 (revised).

Application Procedure: Community officials must submit an eligibility application form, which is available from the FEMA, together with: copies of adopted flood plain management measures meeting the minimum standards of 44 CFR Section 60.3(a) or 60.3(b); a list of any incorporated communities within the applicant's boundaries, and estimates of population and, by kind, of buildings situated in the known flood-prone areas of the community. Such Applications should be submitted to the Office of State and Local Programs and Support, FEMA, Washington, DC 20472.

Award Procedure: FEMA reviews the application and if complete, designates the community as eligible. The community is informed of its eligibility, and notice is published in the Federal Register. Residents and property owners may then purchase flood insurance through any licensed property or casualty insurance agent or broker licensed within that State.

Deadlines: Communities with one or more identified areas of special flood hazard must enter the program by July 1, 1975, or 1 year after the identification of those areas, whichever is later, before lending prohibitions in identified hazard areas take force. Once the community does qualify, after the prescribed date, the lending prohibitions are removed. Adequate flood plain management measures must be in effect within 6 months of the date that the special flood hazard area is identified and within 6 months of the date water surface elevations are provided.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time: For complete applications, a maximum of 10 working days is allowed for review and notification.

Appeals: Communities are allowed to appeal flood-prone identification and are also given an opportunity to appeal proposed elevation determinations for new construction and substantial improvement of existing structures in the special flood hazard areas. Notice of the proposed levels is published in the Federal Register and is sent directly to the local governments. Following notification to the local government, the notice of proposed flood elevation determinations is published twice during a 10-day period in a prominent newspaper. The local community and its individual residents then have 90 days following the second newspaper notice to submit any scientific or technical data that tend to negate or contradict FEMA's findings. If a conflict in data exists and cannot be resolved at the community level, the community consolidates all individual appeals for review by FEMA. The FEMA shall resolve the appeals by consultation with officials of the local government, or by submission of conflicting data to an independent scientific body, or by administrative hearings.

83.501 STATE ASSISTANCE PROGRAM

FEDERAL AGENCY: STATE AND LOCAL PROGRAMS AND SUPPORT, FEDERAL EMERGENCY MANAGEMENT AGENCY

AUTHORIZATION: The National Flood Insurance Act of 1968 and the Flood Disaster Protection Act of 1973, 42 U.S.C. 4001 et seq.; Reorganization Plan No. 3 of 1978, 43 FR 41943; Executive Order 12127, effective April 1, 1979, 44 FR 19367.

OBJECTIVES: To facilitate each State's achievement of a level of expertise in flood hazard management which will enable the State to provide assistance to its constituent communities in discharging local flood hazard management responsibilities.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE: Project Grants (Cooperative Agreements).

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS: The State Assistance Program is designed for all States which submit acceptable applications regardless of their present level of involvement or degree of expertise in flood hazard management activities. It allows each State the flexibility necessary to develop an application to accommodate the unique characteristics of the State and its communities, and to undertake an appropriate level of effort. The Program has been designed around three incremental Program Elements: Assessment, General Assistance and Public Information, and Community Services. The State chooses objectives and tasks from the Program Elements that are consistent with its demonstrated capability and develops a project designed to provide the requisite foundation for progression towards elements requiring higher capabilities. All projects should be oriented toward State and local activities. They should in no way analyze or recommend changes to the National Flood Insurance Program or its products; no funds should be spent to evaluate the hydrology or hydraulics of any Flood Insurance Study. Public works, facilities and site or other improvements are generally ineligible to be acquired, constructed, reconstructed, rehabilitated or installed. The purchase of equipment is generally ineligible. Each State's application for the target amount of funding may also contain a supplemental project proposing innovative tasks to be funded from a separate fund.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

Applicant Eligibility: States (includes the District of Columbia, Guam, Puerto Rico, and the Virgin Islands).

Beneficiary Eligibility: Same as Applicant Eligibility.

Credentials/Documentation: Costs will be determined in accordance with OMB Circular No. A-87 for State and local governments.

APPLICATION AND AWARD PROCESS:

Preapplication Coordination: The standard application forms as furnished by the Federal agency and required by OMB Circular No. A-102 must be used for this program. Applications are subject to State and area-wide clearinghouses review pursuant to procedures in Part I, Attachment A of OMB Circular No. A-95 (Revised). Assistance is available from the appropriate FEMA Regional Office to aid in the preparation of the preapplication. An informal preapplication conference is recommended.

Application Procedure: The standard application forms as furnished by the Federal agency and required by OMB Circular No. A-102 must be used for this program. Each State shall submit the application to its respective Federal Emergency Management Agency Regional Office in accordance with the instructions provided in the Request for Application.

Award Procedure: Notification of awards must be made to the designated State Central Information Reception Agency in accordance with Treasury Circular 1082. Final approval of applications will be made by FEMA.

Deadlines: Contact the appropriate Federal Emergency Management Agency Regional Office for deadline on submissions.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time: 30 to 90 days.

Appeals: Not applicable.

Renewals: Not Applicable.

ASSISTANCE CONSIDERATIONS:

Formula and Matching Requirements: Reference 44 CFR Part 76.2(b)(1) and (2). This program has no statutory formula. An apportionment formula has been developed to target an equitable share of the program's funds annually to each State interested in assistance. The four factors used to derive the formula include: (1) Population in Special Flood Hazard Areas - reflects the relative magnitude of lives risked from flooding in each State (FEMA records, 1981); (2) Number of Communities Participating in the Regular Program - reflects the relative priorities established by FEMA Regional Offices for flood hazard risk mapping purposes in each State (FEMA records, 1981); (3) Total Increases in Households - reflects relative increase in flood risks due to development pressure in each State (FEMA records, 1981); (4) Flood Damage by Flood Insurance Claims - reflects the relative historical flood damage sustained by States (FEMA records, 1981). The four factors are weighted equally. Application of this formula established a maximum amount of money available per State per year under the target State Assistance Program funding. This program has had no matching requirements. Beginning in fiscal year 1983, funding will be based upon 75 percent Federal funds and 25 percent State funds.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance: Assistance is provided each fiscal year for a project period not to exceed 12 months.

POST ASSISTANCE REQUIREMENTS:

Reports: Progress and expenditure reports are required on a quarterly basis. Special problems reports as needed.

Audits: Federal audits will be made in accordance with the policies of OMB Circular Nos. A-73 and A-87 to ensure that funds have been applied efficiently, economically, and effectively.

Records: All records pertinent to a grant (cooperative agreement) shall be retained in accordance with OMB Circular No. A-102 Attachment C.

OBJECTIVES: To reduce future flood insurance and disaster assistance costs by providing an opportunity for repetitively and substantially damaged structures of policyholders to be permanently removed from flood risk areas, thus reducing risk of life from flooding and complementing Federal, State, and local efforts by restoring flood plains, protecting the environment, and providing recreational and open space resources.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE: Sale, Exchange, or Donation of Property and Goods.

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS: The Section 1362 Program is designed to provide an opportunity for owners of repetitively and substantially damaged structures, covered by flood insurance under the National Flood Insurance Program to be permanently removed from flood risk areas. The improved real property will only be acquired through voluntary sale and not through eminent domain or condemnation proceeding. Thus, no property owners will be required to sell their properties under Section 1362. Subsequent use will be for open space and not for any purpose involving a construction project. The community in which the improved real property is located must be willing to accept title to the acquired real property for land management and restrict its use to open space use or similar purposes. The community shall join in the execution of the deed which will recite such use restrictions that will run with the land, accompanying the property in perpetuity, even if title is subsequently transferred by the community. Any improvements on the real property shall be demolished, transferred to the former owner for relocation to a site outside of any flood risk area, or sold for salvage value, as appropriate and agreed upon between the community and the Federal Government.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

Applicant Eligibility: Three general conditions must be met for real property to be considered eligible for acquisition under Section 1362: (1) the property must be located in a flood risk area, as determined by FEMA; (2) the property must be covered by flood insurance under the NFIP; and (3) the property must meet any one of the following damage criteria: (i) property that has been damaged "substantially beyond repair by flood" while covered under the NFIP; (ii) property that has incurred significant flood damage on not less than three previous occasions while covered under the NFIP under a five year period and on each occasion the cost of repair, on the average, was at least 25 percent of the value of the structure; or (iii) property, while covered under the NFIP, that has subtained damage from a "single casualty of any nature" so that a statute, ordinance or regulation precludes its repair or restoration or permits repair or restoration only at significantly increased cost.

Beneficiary Eligibility: Community - must agree to accept title and manage, according to deed restrictions, etc.

Credentials/Documentation: Not applicable.

APPLICATION AND AWARD PROCESS:

Preapplication Coordination: Letter from community to Regional Director of FEMA following a flood expressing interest, preparation of pre-application for Headquarters review.

Application Procedure: When a pre-application is approved, the Regional Director, in consultation with the community, will prepare a full recommendation package. The package will consist of property profiles, candidate interviews, community agreement, environmental assessment and project justification data.

Award Procedure: FEMA reviews the recommendation package and, if complete, designates the community as eligible. The community is informed of its eligibility, and notice is published in the Federal Register. Public meetings of FEMA staff, community officials, and property owners are then held in the community to discuss the details of the Section 1362 Program.

The base year is the year immediately preceding the 4-year increase period for which application is filed. FEDERAL AGENCY: OFFICE OF ASSISTANT SECRETARY FOR ELEMENTARY AND SECONDARY EDUCATION, DEPARTMENT OF EDUCATION

AUTHORIZATION: Federally Impacted Areas, Titles I and IV, of Public Law 81-874, as amended.

OBJECTIVES: To provide financial assistance to local educational agencies when enrollments or availability of revenue are adversely affected by Federal activities where the tax base of a district is reduced through the Federal acquisition of real property, where there is a sudden and substantial increase in school attendance as the result of Federal activities; to assist local agencies in the education of children residing on Federal, including Indian, lands and children whose parents are employed on Federal property or in the Uniformed Service. To provide major disaster assistance for replacing or repairing damaged or destroyed supplies, equipment, books and for repairing minor damages to facilities.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE: Formula Grants.

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS: For payment of maintenance and operation expenditures. This does not limit nor specify the uses that can be made of funds received by an eligible district, except payments attributable to handicapped children. Most districts deposit the Federal payment in the general operating funds account together with all State and local funds available for current operating expenses and use this combined account to finance the school program in the district. Federal financial assistance is limited by definition to legally constituted local or State educational agencies that provide free public elementary and secondary education.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

Renewals: Not applicable.

ASSISTANCE CONSIDERATIONS:

Formula and Matching Requirements: Formula: Section 2- the otherwise assessed valuation times the tax rate required to balance the local budget while not exceeding current expense tax rate. The statistical factor used for fund allocation: Section 2 - Entitlement Computation Formula: Assessed valuation of federally owned real property if it were still on the tax rolls multiplied by the tax rate for current expenditures. This computation represents the maximum entitlements. Continuing need or burden are also included in formula. Source of data - Assessed valuation, records of tax rates, etc., are obtained from local or County Tax Assessors/Collectors. Burden or needs data obtained from school district fiscal records and pupil records. Section 3- the Federal ADA times local contribution rates. The statistical factors used for fund allocation: Section 3 - Entitlement Formula: Prior year's average daily attendance of all pupils divided by prior year's total membership is used to determine ratio. Ratio is then multiplied by each applicable category of federally connected pupils to determine federally connected ADA for payment purposes. Source of data - Average Daily Attendance and membership figures from prior applications, school district pupil accounting records or from State Education Department. Eligible federally connected pupils from actual pupil - parent survey forms. Section 4- the current per pupil cost of comparable districts less the State aid of applicant district. The statistical factors used for fund allocation: Section 4 - Entitlement Factors - Assuming eligibility requirements have been satisfied, entitlement is computed by applying the number of increased pupils and the amount the Secretary determines to be the current expenditure per child minus amounts available from State, local or other Federal sources. Source of data -Pupil- parent surveys, pupil accounting records and local district fiscal records. See 34 CFR 222 formerly 45 CFR 115. Statistical factors used for eligibility do not apply to this program. There are no matching requirements. This program has maintenance of effort (MOE) requirements, see funding agency for further details.

OBJECTIVES: To honor former President Harry S. Truman through the operation of a perpetual educational scholarship program to develop increased opportunities for young Americans to prepare for and pursue careers in public service.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE: Direct Payments for Specified Use.

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS: Assistance is intended for the use of Scholars only.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

Applicant Eligibility: Sophomore, undergraduate college students who are properly nominated by Department of Education recognized accredited colleges or universities, public and private nonprofit institutions/colleges and universities.

Beneficiary Eligibility: U.S. citizens or nationals, youth, college sophomores.

Credentials/Documentation: Enrolled, matriculated in a degree program at an accredited U.S. college; Junior pursuing a bachelor's degree as a full-time student during the forthcoming academic year; college grade point average of at least "B" (or equivalent) and ranked in the upper fourth of her or his class; U.S. citizen or national; selected field of study that will permit admission to a graduate or professional program leading to a career in public service.

APPLICATION AND AWARD PROCESS:

Preapplication Coordination: Each June all accredited U.S. colleges and universities are invited to nominate up to two students for the forthcoming year's Truman Scholarships. The standard nomination forms with instructions will be provided to the designated faculty representatives of all such institutions whose presidents or chancellors inform the Foundation of their intent to participate.

Application Procedure: The faculty representative of an institution is the key person in the Truman Scholarship selection process and serves as liaison between her or his institution and the Foundation. The faculty representative is responsible for publicizing the Truman Scholarship on campus, soliciting recommendations on students with significant potential for leadership in government from members of the faculty, conducting a competition on campus in order to determine the candidates best qualified to be nominated by the institution, and insuring that the institution's official nomination or nominations are forwarded to the Truman Scholarship Review Committee by the stated deadline. The following information, on the official nominating materials, must be included with each Scholarship nomination: 1. The nomination and supporting information for the Harry S. Truman Scholarship Program must include a certification that the student is a candidate for a Truman Scholarship; a statement that the student plans to pursue a career in public service; a list of the student's public service activities such as those associated with government agencies, community groups, and political campaigns; a list of leadership positions the student has held during high school and during the first two years of undergraduate study; a statement of interest in a career in public service that specifies how the student's educational plans will provide preparation for that career; and a statement that the student is willing to participate in an internship or seminar sponsored by the Foundation. 2. It must also contain an essay of 600 words or less written by the student that discusses some public policy issue chosen by the student; transcripts of the student's high school and college grades; and three letters of recommendation. One of the letters must be written by a faculty member in the student's field of study, one by another person who can discuss the student's potential for a career in public service, and the third letter may be from any person of the nominee's choosing.

Award Procedure: 1. Initial evaluation: Student nominated for consideration as Harry S. Truman Scholars will be evaluated on the basis of: a. the extent to which the student has shown an outstanding potential for leadership in public service, and b. the student's academic performance. 2. Interviews: Semifinalist selected as a result of the initial evaluation of the credentials of all nominees are interviewed by Regional Review Panels, composed primarily of prominent scholars and public officials. Each Regional Review Panel will recommend two persons from each State or district in rank order for selection as Truman Scholars, plus up to four additional persons in rank order for two Scholarships at large from each region. Because only students with superior academic records are selected as semifinalists, the Regional Review Panels will concentrate their evaluation on the nominees' demonstrated interest in the public service and their relative potential for leadership in government. Among the characteristics they will assess in making this judgment are the following: analytic ability, communication skills, independence, initiative, integrity, self-confidence, sensitivity to others, ability to explain with clarity a complex situation, a demonstrated interest in public service, and a commitment to future public service. 3. Final Selection: From among the candidates recommended by the Regional Review Panels, the Board of Trustees will name up to 105 winners of Harry S. Truman Scholarships. Other finalists may be named as official alternates and will be eligible to receive that year's Scholarship if the winner originally named from the same State or district is not able to begin studies as a Truman Scholar.

Deadlines: December 1, each year, for faculty representatives to file nominations for Scholarships.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time: 1. January, each year - Scholarship nominees are evaluated and semifinalists selected. 2. February-March, each year - Truman Scholarship semifinalists are interviewed. 3. April, each year - The Truman Scholars and alternates are selected by the Board of Trustees of the Harry S. Truman Scholarship Foundation.

Appeals: None.

Renewals: 1. It is the intent of the Foundation to renew Scholarship awards for the senior year and for a period not to exceed two academic years of graduate study, in accordance with the regulations established by its Board of Trustees, and subject to an annual review for compliance with these requirements. 2. The Foundation may terminate a Scholarship: a. when a student has not maintained, for two consecutive academic terms, satisfactory proficiency, or b. when the student is no longer enrolled in a program preparing for public service as specified by the Foundation. 3. A Scholar may seek postponement of her or his award because of ill health or other mitigating circumstances, upon application to the Executive Secretary.

ASSISTANCE CONSIDERATIONS:

Formula and Matching Requirements: Not applicable.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance: To be eligible to receive payments, a Truman Scholar must submit in writing: 1. an acceptance of the Scholarship award, and 2. at the beginning of each academic term, a statement of eligible expenses certified by the authorized financial officer of the enrolling institution, including those of tuition, fees, books, and room and board, an additional certification regarding the Scholar's academic program, and other certifications as required by law or regulation. The number of payments to be made via Treasury check during the academic year will correspond to the number of semesters, trimesters, or quarters in the institution's academic year, but will not be less than two.

PENSION BENEFIT GUARANTY CORPORATION

86.001 PENSION PLAN TERMINATION INSURANCE

(ERISA)

FEDERAL AGENCY: PENSION BENEFIT GUARANTY CORPORATION

AUTHORIZATION: Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974, Title IV (Plan Termination Insurance), Public Law 93-406, as amended by Public Law 96-364, the Multiemployer Pension Plan Amendments Act of 1980.

OBJECTIVES: To encourage the continuation and maintenance of voluntary private pension plans for the benefit of their participants, to provide for the timely and uninterrupted payment of pension benefits to participants in and beneficiaries of covered plans, and to maintain premiums charged by the PBGC at the lowest level consistent with carrying out its obligations.

TYPES OF ASSISTANCE: Insurance.

USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS: Insurance coverage is mandatory for most defined benefit pension plans. Upon termination of a covered single-employer plan, the PBGC guarantees payment of benefits vested under the terms of the plan within limits specified in the Act. The guaranteed basic benefits payable to a participant or beneficiary under a covered single-employer plan may not exceed the actuarial value at the time of termination of a monthly benefit in the form of a life annuity commencing at age 65 equal to the lesser of: (1) $750, adjusted to reflect changes in the Social Security contribution and benefit base, or (2) a participant's high consecutive five-year average monthly gross income. When covered plans or amendments to them are less than five years old at termination, basic benefits are guaranteed on a graduated basis. Insurance on single-employer plans is presently effective as of September 2, 1974, and under certain circumstances, to plans that terminated on or after July 1, 1974. Benefits of persons defined as "substantial owners" are guaranteed on a 30-year graduated basis, subject to certain additional limits in the case of increased benefits due to plan amendment. The Multiemployer Pension Plan Amendments Act of 1980, signed into law September 26, 1980, alters the nature of the insurance program for multiemployer pension plans. The Act alters the concept of plan termination for such plans, reduces the level of guarantees, creates a program of reorganization for plans with certain funding problems, and restructures PBGC's role so that it is authorized to extend financial assistance to certain troubled plans in order that they be able to meet plan commitments owed under the reduced guaranteed level. Insurance coverage is mandatory for any plan which is an employee pension benefit established or maintained by: (1) an employer engaged in or affecting commerce; (2) an employee organization engaged in or affecting commerce; or (3) both. Insurance coverage does not extend to any plan which is: (1) an individual account plan; (2) established and maintained for Federal, State or local government employees; (3) a church plan, unless an exception is granted by the PBGC; (4) not funded at all by the participant's employer; (5) unfunded and maintained by an employer primarily to provide deferred compensation for a select group of management or highly compensated employees; (6) established and maintained outside of the U.S. primarily for the benefit of non-resident aliens; (7) maintained by an employer solely for the purpose of providing benefits for certain employees in excess of the limitations on contributions and benefits imposed by the Internal Revenue Code; (8) established and maintained exclusively for substantial owners; (9) that of an international organization; (10) maintained solely for the purpose of complying with applicable workmen's compensation laws or unemployment compensation or disability insurance laws; or (11) established and maintained by a professional service employer which does not have more than 25 participants.

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS:

Applicant Eligibility: Private businesses and organizations, who maintain defined benefit plans and participants in such plans.

Beneficiary Eligibility: All participants of covered pension plans which have terminated subsequent to June 30, 1974 may be potentially eligible beneficiaries of plan termination insurance payments.

Credentials/Documentation: In support of Notice of Intent to Terminate Plan, records relating to financial operations and participants must be furnished by the plan administrator.

APPLICATION AND AWARD PROCESS:

Preapplication Coordination: None.

Application Procedure: A plan administrator who intends to terminate a covered single-employer plan must notify PBGC at least 10 days prior to the proposed termination date in accordance with PBGC regulations. Applications relating to multiemployer pension plan matters should be sent to PBGC, Office of Program Operations, 2020 K Street, NW., Washington, DC 20006.

Award Procedure: The PBGC determines whether or not the assets of covered single-employer plans which have either notified the PBGC of their intent to terminate or against which the PBGC has initiated termination proceedings are sufficient to pay guaranteed benefits. If plan assets are found to be insufficient or the PBGC is unable to determine asset sufficiency, it will normally have itself named as trustee to administer the plan. The PBGC is liable to pay amounts necessary to assure that basic benefits guaranteed under Title IV of the Act are paid to participants or beneficiaries under covered insufficient single-employer plans.

Deadlines: An annual premium filing form (Form PBGC-1) and a premium payment for existing plans must be filed by the plan administrator with the PBGC no later than the end of the seventh month after the close of the prior plan year. A Form PBGC-1 and premium payment for new plans or newly covered plans must be filed seven months after the beginning of the plan year or 30 days after the "effective date" of the plan whichever is later. Notification of intent to terminate a plan must be submitted to the PBGC by the plan administrator at least 10 days prior to the proposed date of termination. An appeal of an initial determination made by the PBGC normally must be filed within 45 days after the date of the initial determination being appealed.

Range of Approval/Disapproval Time: Not applicable.

Appeals: Any person aggrieved by an initial determination made by the PBGC which is covered by the appeals procedures may file an appeal. An appeal or a request for an extension of time to appeal should be submitted to the Appeals Board, Pension Benefit Guaranty Corporation, 2020 K Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20006. In addition, the PBGC has the authority to review informally, upon request, determinations that are not covered by the appeals procedures when it determines that it would be appropriate to do so.

Renewals: Not applicable.

ASSISTANCE CONSIDERATIONS:

Formula and Matching Requirements: Not applicable.

Length and Time Phasing of Assistance: Not applicable, except as noted in USES AND USE RESTRICTIONS above.

POST ASSISTANCE REQUIREMENTS:

Reports: An annual report (Form 5500 series) must be filed by the plan administrator with the Internal Revenue Service no later than the last day of the seventh month after the close of the prior plan year. Certain events which may indicate serious problems within a plan also must be reported to the PBGC, normally within 30 days after the plan administrator learns of them. Such reportable events include failure to meet minimum funding standards; bankruptcy, insolvency or similar settlements; liquidation or dissolution; or transaction involving a change of employer.

Audits: The PBGC determines whether or not the assets of covered single-employer plans which have either notified the Corporation of their intent to terminate or against which the Corporation has initiated termination proceedings are sufficient to pay guaranteed benefits. The PBGC also may contact participants of sufficient terminated single-employer plans to ensure that assets were distributed in accordance with representations of their plan administrators. In instances where assets of the plan are not sufficient to pay guaranteed benefits, PBGC conducts audits of employers to determine their net worth and ability to pay employer liability.

Records: Records maintenance requirements for pension plans are specified by the Labor-Management Services Administration, Department of Labor.

FINANCIAL INFORMATION:

Account Identification: 16-4204-0-3-601.

PROGRAM ACCOMPLISHMENTS: PBGC administers an insurance program guaranteeing certain pension benefits to approximately 33 million participants in approximately 80,000 private defined benefit pension plans. In fiscal year 1981, there were 24,500 participants of trusteed plans in pay status and PBGC paid $41,934,000 in benefits. A-87

OMB Circular No. A-87 establishes principles and standards for determining costs applicable to grants and contracts with State and local governments. They are designed to provide the basis for a uniform approach to the problem of determining costs and to promote efficiency and better relationships between grantees and the Federal Government.

When State and local governments are recipients, the following programs listed in the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance are subject to the provision of A-87, except where restricted or prohibited by law.

Included also in the list are programs falling under the purview of A-87 because the Federal grantor agencies have elected to use the A-87 standards for recipients and programs not otherwise covered by the circular.

A-102

OMB Circular No. A-102, establishes uniform administrative standards for the administration of grants and contracts to State and local governments.

When State and local governments are recipients, the following programs listed in the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance are subject to the provisions of OMB Circular No. A-102.

Environmental Impact Statement

Specific programs listed in the Catalog of Federal Domestic Assistance have been determined to have a significant effect on the environment and require an environmental assessment or an Environmental Impact Statement (EIS) under Section 102(2)(C) of the National Environmental Policy Act of 1969 (Public Law 90-190; 42 U.S.C. 4332(2)(C), and Executive Order 11514 (34 FR 4247) of March 4, 1970. (Significant effects include actions that may have both beneficial and detrimental effects.)

In the early stages of project application, and in all cases prior to agency decisions concerning major action, the applicant should be advised by the Federal agency from which assistance is being sought that he will be required to submit environmental impact information (to be submitted under agency guidelines) in connection with the proposed project for an environmental assessment (to be made by the Federal agency), or an Environmental Impact Statement (to be supplied by the Federal agency) concerning the proposed project.

Although the list below is not inclusive, it contains programs normally requiring either an environmental assessment or an Environmental Impact Statement.

For EIS coordination requirements, refer to the Preapplication Coordination section of each program description.

Treasury Circular 1082

The Intergovernmental Cooperation Act of 1968 requires Federal agencies to notify the Governors, State legislatures, or their designated representatives of the purpose and amount of grants awarded to units of State/local government. Central reception points (State Central Information Reception Agencies) have been designated by the States for receiving and disseminating this information. Administrative procedures are defined in Department of the Treasury Circular No. 1082.

Notification is required on all grants to units of State/local government except those specifically exempted by the Act. The list below covers most grants to units of State/local government which fall within the purview of the Circular. Not included may be some programs where non-governmental organizations are primary recipients but occasional grants are awarded to State/local government. In these instances, notification is required.

For detailed information on the award process, refer to the Award Procedure section of each program description.

Programs in this appendix having a single asterisk (*) at the end of the title are Basic Reporting Programs. Programs having double asterisks () denote Basic as well as Supplemental Reporting.

A-110

Appendix III: Budget Functional Code Appendix

FINANCIAL INFORMATION

Account Identification - This 11-digit budget code identifies the account from which a program is funded as expressed in the Appendix to the Federal Budget. For identification code 75-0350-0-1-551, the first two digits represent the Federal agency code, and the third through sixth digits identify the apropriation (or fund) basic account symbol assigned by the Treasury Department. Where two or more accounts with different Treasury basic account symbols are included in a consolidated program, 99 will be the third and fourth digits, the fifth digit will be the fund type and the sixth digit will reflect the sequence of consolidated programs for that fund type within the agency. The seventh digit identifies the timing of transmittal of budget estimates:

0-Regular budget schedules
1-Supplemental under existing legislation
2-Proposed for later transmittal under proposed legislation
3-Proposed for later transmittal under existing legislation
4-Supplemental - additional authorizing legislation required
5-Recission proposal
6-Supplemental request pending

The eighth digit identifies the type of government fund involved:

1-General fund

General Fund Appropriation Accounts - Accounts established to record amounts appropriated by the Congress to be expended for the general support of the Government.

General Fund Receipt Accounts - Accounts credited with all receipts that are not earmarked by law for a specific purpose.

2-Special fund

Special Fund Appropriation Accounts - Accounts established to record appropriated amounts of special fund receipts to be expended for special programs in accordance with specific provisions of law.

Special Fund Receipt Accounts - Accounts credited with receipts from specific sources that are earmarked by law for a specific purpose.

3-Public Enterprise Revolving Fund Accounts - Funds authorized by Congress to be credited with receipts primarily from the public, that are generated by, and earmarked to finance, a continuing cycle of business-type operations.

4-Intragovernmental Revolving or Management Fund

Intragovernmental Fund Accounts - Accounts established to facilitate financing transactions within and between Federal agencies. These funds may be classified as intragovernmental revolving funds or management funds.

Intragovernmental Revolving Fund Accounts - Funds authorized by law to carry out a cycle of intragovernmental business-type operations. These funds are credited with offsetting collections from other agencies and accounts.

7-Trust Fund (non-revolving) - Funds collected and used by the Federal Government for carrying out specific purposes and programs according to terms of a trust agreement or statute, such as the social security and unemployment trust funds. Trust funds are administered by the Government in a fiduciary capacity and are not available for the general purposes of the Government. Trust fund receipt accounts are credited with receipts generated by the terms of the trust agreement or statute. Trust fund receipts that are not anticipated to be used in the immediate future are generally invested in interest bearing Government securities and earn interest for the trust fund. Trust fund expenditure accounts record amounts appropriated from trust fund receipts to be expended in carrying out the specific purposes or programs under the trust agreement or statute. A special category of trust funds called trust revolving funds is used to carry out a cycle of business-type operations, e.g.,the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation.

8-Trust Fund (revolving) - A fund established to finance a cycle of operations through amounts received by the fund. There are three types of revolving funds: public enterprise, intergovernmental revolving, and trust revolving funds.

9-Deposit Fund - Accounts established to facilitate the accounting for collections that are either (a) held in suspense temporarily and later refunded or paid into some other fund of the Government upon administrative or legal determination as to the proper disposition thereof or (b) held by the Government as banker or agent for others and paid out at the discretion of the depositor. These accounts are not included in the budget totals and they are not available for expenses of the Government, although they do provide a means of financing the budget.

The last three digits represent the functional classification (code) used in the latest Federal Budget document, unless noted otherwise by the Office of Management and Budget. In cases where a program is split between two or more subfunctions: (a) if all subfunctions are in the same major function, the code is the same as for the major function; or (b) if two or more major functions are involved the digits '999' are used.

Example: 75-1361-0-1-550.

Listed below are 16 major functions and 67 subfunctions as used in the budget document to show allocations of budget authority and outlays according to end purposes without regard to agency jurisdiction. The central nature of each major function is identified and defined. Catalog programs are listed following each applicable subfunction (or major function). Note that some subfunctions are not applicable to Catalog programs.

The alphabet(s) in parentheses following the program title, shows the type(s) of assistance available through that program. The alphabet codes with accompanying types of assistance are as follows: A-Formula Grants; B-Project Grants; C-Direct Payments for Specified Use; D-Direct Payments with Unrestricted Use; E-Direct Loans; F-Guaranteed/Insured Loans; G-Insurance; H-Sale, Exchange, or Donation of Property and Goods; I-Use of Property, Facilities, and Equipment; J-Provisions of Specialized Services; K-Advisory Services and Counseling; L-Dissemination of Technical Information; M-Training; N-Investigation of Complaints; O-Federal Employment.

Appendix V: Sources of Additional Information Contacts

Additional information concerning Federal programs and services is available from the sources listed below. The information in this Appendix is in addition to that supplied in Appendix IV (Regional and Local Office addresses), but are not the offices to which an applicant applies for an assistance program. If a potential applicant or information seeker is not certain which agency to contact, there are three types of organizations ready to help: The Federal Information Centers, the Federal Regional Councils, and the Federal Executive Boards.

FEDERAL INFORMATION CENTERS

Federal Information Centers (FIC) are a focal point for information about the Federal Government. Centers assist people who have questions about Federal services, programs, and regulations, but do not know where to turn for an answer. FIC information specialists either answer an inquirer's questions directly, or perform the necessary research to locate and refer the inquirer to the expert best able to help. There are currently 40 cities with an FIC and an additional 43 cities connected to the nearest Center by telephone tieline. Statewide toll-free '800' service is available to the residents of five States: Florida, Iowa, Kansas, Missouri, and Nebraska. The FIC addresses and telephone numbers are listed below.
